

Minutes of the General Meeting of the Nanoose Bay Probus Club
Friday, Nov 18, 2022

Welcome:

President Maggie Carter called the meeting to order at 9:20 a.m. There were 67 members and 4 guests present. We have 187 active members in the club.

Treasurer: Patrick Murray

Chequing: $2352.81 Savings: $3,726.36

The church has had to upgrade the parking lot. There was an expenditure overrun compared to the original estimate. The church has asked all the clubs that use the facility to make a donation to help with the shortfall. The Probus executive has approved a $400 donation.

Members who have not yet renewed for next year are asked to do so, preferably by e-transfer.

Social: Melba Nelson.

Please pay for your Christmas Party tickets as until this happens, we don't really know numbers. Add a note in your e-transfer that it is for the Christmas Party.

Eagle viewing trip to Squamish planned for Jan 2023 is going ahead and still has space. Sign up sheet available. People must do their own booking for the accommodation at the Sandman.

Sunshine: - Judy George.

2 cards sent out this month.

Special Interest Groups: Ann Lawson

Updates for each group can be found on nbprobus.org

Volunteers to help any of the group organizers would be very welcome.

Break for coffee.

Speaker:

Keith Thompson introduced the speaker - Henry Geraedts who gave his talk on, "The NetZero Delusion: A fable about Green unicorns, Black dragons and much hydrocarbon pixie dust."

At 11:20 Maggie moved the meeting close, seconded by Patrick Murray
